A Report on the Project Induction meeting held at Muragacha Govt
College, Nadia, West Bengal

A Project Induction Meeting was held at Muragacha Govt College Study Centre of Netaji Subhas Open University on 16th July, 2018. The meeting was convened by Dr Binayak Chanda, Coordinator, NSOU Muragacha Govt. College Study Centre and Prof. Tapas Kumar Saha, Principal of the college chaired the session. Dr Uttam Kumar Biswas, Assistant Professor in Bengali, Presidency University was invited as a representative of researcher working under this project.

On behalf of the Centre for Language, Translation & Cultural Studies (CLTCS) NSOU, Professor Manan Kumar Mandal, Director, School of Humanities, in his lecture briefly mentioned the objective of the aforementioned research collaboration and activities of the project. His lecture was followed by a power point presentation in which he elaborated the details of the working praxis of this unique collaborative venture. In his talk he emphasized that the personal memory and mementos on Bengal Partition needs to be collected on urgent basis as the prospective members having partition experiences are growing too old. CLTCS, NSOU has planned to develop a digital archive on Bengal Partition & the Liberation War of Bangladesh which is an unique effort from a people's university perspective, he added.

A group of interested teacher and researcher of different colleges and universities attended the programme. It was decided that a researcher group will be formed as per planning of the ongoing project as early as possible.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair delivered by Dr Binayak Chanda.
